

GANDHI FELLOWSHIP

Concept Note

Gandhi Smriti and Darshan Samiti (GSDS) is a national memorial dedicated to Mahatma Gandhi. Hon'ble Prime Minister of India is its Chairman. The overarching goal of the Samiti is to take forward the philosophy and thoughts of Mahatma Gandhi to all cross-section of the society.

The Samiti has a large number of programmes reaching out to different stakeholders. In line with this, GSDS is aiming to develop a comprehensive database of Senior Gandhians, Gandhian social workers at grass-root level and institutes/organisations/chairs devoted to Gandhian philosophy. This would facilitate in connecting with like-minded individuals and organizations thereby promoting collaboration for sustainable social impact along Gandhian line.

To accomplish the aforesaid task GSDS hereby launches 'Gandhi Fellowship'. The primary objective of the fellowship is to inspire and empower the youth to understand and contribute to Gandhian principles by immersing them in the activities of various Gandhians and like-minded organizations.

Under this fellowship programme, the selected fellows will be entrusted with the task of making extensive tour and fieldwork in order to collect the data of Senior Gandhians as well as Gandhian organisations.

Applications will be invited from young, passionate individuals with a commitment to social change. Selection will be based on academic merit, leadership potential, and a deep understanding of Gandhian philosophy.

Aims and Objectives of the Fellowship Programme:

- Fellows will travel to different parts of the country, visiting various Gandhian and like-minded organizations. During their visits, they will collect valuable data on organizational structures, activities, and impact of such organisations in prescribed format
- Fellows will prepare a comprehensive pan-Indian database of Gandhian Institutes/Senior Gandhians.
- Fellows will also identify and procure the archival material pertaining to Mahatma Gandhi from various Gandhian Institutes.
- Fellows will simultaneously explore the possibilities of collaboration of other Gandhian institutes with GSDS.
- Fellows will document their experiences through written reports, audio-visual content, and other mediums, creating a comprehensive repository of information on the organizations visited.

Terms and Conditions of the Fellowship Programme:

Total number of Fellowships:

- Five (05)

Eligibility:

- This Fellowship programme is open to students who have completed post-graduation, preferably in subjects belonging to Humanities and Social Sciences.
- Preference will be given to candidates pursuing research degree or having experience in fieldwork.
